SOUTHERN PACIFIC OUTLINES ITS PLANS

WILL EXPEND TWO MILLION DOLLARS ON A PENINSULA ELECTRIC SYSTEM.

County Committees Will Meet With Corporation Today to Confer on Question of Rates.

Monday afternoon the representatives of the peninsula commuters met with the Southern Pacific representatives in San Francisco to hear from the latter company the terms it had to offer to the public in the way of reduced fares. For months the agitation for a reduction of the present traveling rates has been actively kept up. A few weeks ago it took the form of a complaint to the Railroad Commission. The commission met. The railroad officials proposed a sixty-day delay, during which acceptable terms of compromise should be worked out. The commuters agreed Now the "compromise" has been brought forward into the light.

Attorney C. F. Durbrow, Passenger Traffic Manager C. F. Fee, Paul Shoup of Los Angeles, president of the Pacific Electric Lines and head of the San Jose-Palo Alto electric system; M. D. Markham and Chas. Seeley were present at the conference Monday, which resulted in the laying down of terms for mutual agreement.

The railroad men first stated that they would be willing to raise $2,700,000 to build a new fast-service double-track electric line from San Francisco to Palo Alto, if the commuters would promise to be "reasonable" about rates. The fact that such a road would ultimately be necessary, compromise or no compromise, was not touched upon; nor was the similar fact that it would probably pay dividends from the start.

It was also promised that there would be a "reasanoble" reduction on the present commuters' rates along the Peninsula, and that the rates on the new electric system would be "fair."

No details as to the routing of the proposed new line have so far been given, but it is considered certain that it will not have its terminal at Third and Townsend, which is already overcrowded with traffic, and that it will not make use of the present United Railroads line to San Mateo. The old steam line through the mission will probably be utilized, and the Southern Pacific may make use of its joint interest in the site of the Ocean Shore depot at Twelfth and Mission streets.

San Mateo was represented at the conference by J. G. McGregor, chairman; H. C. Tuchsen, D. G. Doubeday, W. J. Martin, Rev. W. A. Brewer and Supervisor W. H. Brown.

OCEAN SHORE RAILROAD SHOWS LARGE INCOME.

That the Ocean Shore railroad, after years of litigation and struggle, is at last on a paying basis is indicated by the income statement of for the eight months of the present year, presented to and approved by the board of directors last Thursday. The road shows, after all expenses and charges have been met, a net income of $5,159.59 as compared to a net loss of $64,323.38 for the corresponding eight months of 1911, and a net loss of $39,390.93 for the eight months of 1910.

It has been known for some time that the road has been on a far better basis of earning than ever before in its history, but the actual showing should prove cheering news even to those who hoped for a much better statement than the line has ever been able to issue before. Thebalance sheet has finally shown a row of figures on the right side of the ledger.

Will Honor National President

General George S. Evans Relief Corps is planning a reception at which Mrs. Geraldine E. Frisbie, who was elected national president of the Women's Relief Corps at the recent convention at Los Angeles, will be the honored guest. Mrs. Frisbie has been a member of General George S. Evans Corps for the past twenty-six years and is much beloved by her associates. The local corps will be assisted at the reception by McKinley Corps of Palo Alto, and the date will be announced later.

Miss Quinn a Heroine.

Miss May Quinn of San Carlos who recently showed prowess at a fire at her home, again proved herself a heroine Tuesday afternoon when the call for help came from Menlo Park to the fire department. She was passing No. 3 hose house at the time and hitching the hose cart to her automobile hurried to Menlo Park and thus enabled the fire fighters to save the homes adjacent to the burning school house that were greatly in danger of distruction.

Miss Elsie Muller left on Tuesday to take up her studies at the Convent of Notre Dame in San Jose. Miss Muller is gifted musically and will give her time largely to piano study.

ARCHBISHOP DEDICATES NEW CHURCH AT PORTOLA

The dedication of the Portola church Sunday forenoon was an impressive and notable event. The day was one of the most beautiful of the year and hundreds were present. Archbishop Riordan performed the ceermony of dedication. The mass was celebrated by Father Hannigan of Menlo Park aided by Father Lacombe, with Father Ramm preaching the sermon and Father Cantwell, secretary of the Archbishop, among those sitting in the sanctuary.

During his sermon the archbishop made the following remarks:

"If in my diocese I could secure for the establishment of a church or a mission, the co-operation of the Family Club and its finance committee it would render the work a pleasure, and I would be glad to make a very advantageous contract with them. They have combined an innocent and wholesome fun with a high and sacred duty, and I compliment them on what they have done and on the way they have done it."

The Archbishop thanked all the parishoners who have donated so much toward the picturesque church. After the ceremony there was a luncheon at the home of Mr. Folger, attended by the Archbishop, the priests and some of the leading members of the parish and the Family.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY OF CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

The committee appointed by the Congregational church to arrange a program for the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the church met Monday night and enough material is already in sight to insure a very interesting celebration. Rev. R. H. Sink, one of the earlier pastors of the church and at present pastor of the Congregational church at Stockton, will preach the anniversary sermon Sunday morning, November 3d. Rev. L. D. Rathbone and Rev. C. C. Kirtland will speak at the Sunday evening service.

The committee has assurance from all these ministers that they will be present. Rev. Mr. Marr will also be present if his health will permit. The celebration will close with a banquet Monday evening. November 4th.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

A trip up the Sacramento river by moonlight and the week-end in the capital city was the pleasurable outing enjoyed by several Redwood residents this week. In the party were Mrs. M. E. Hanson, Miss Pauline Hanson, Miss Katherine Wolfenden, Miss Edna Truman, Miss Elna Allen, Miss Alice Holden and Miss Cora Lovie.

The Frank Tanning Company met with a heavy loss last Thursday by the capsizing of one of its barges which was carrying 125 cords of bark from deep water to the tannery. About half of the bark has since been recovered. Tanbark is worth $20 a cord now which makes the mishap a costly one.

Reports from the Red Cross hospital at San Mateo are to the effect that Attorney Kirkbride still continues to improve and his physicians look forward to his early and complete recovery.

H. E. Mootz and wife of Stockton were here this week on a visit to A. Kincaid and wife. Mrs. Mootz is Mrs. Kincaid's sister.

Patrick McCarthy, Redwood City's old resident, who has been ill for the past week from bronchial trouble is reported to be improving though still very weak.

Any one wihsing to take singing or piano lessons from a San Francisco teacher call at Episcopal rectory or phone Redwood 73.

Mrs. Reed of Berkeley, who has been the house guest of Mrs. John Christ for several weeks, returned to her home on Saturday.

Mrs. James W. McDill of Creston, Iowa, arrived here during the week to spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Kelso.

James Pipkin and family departed Saturday for Portersville to make their future home.

BASEBALL PLAYERS MEET AT BANQUET

Marrien Men Provide Elaborate Entertainment for Victorius Bachelor Rivals.

The long-disputed question as to which leads to supremacy, married or single life, was noisily and hilariously settled in Sunday's baseball game when the benedicts and bachelors met on the local diamond and fought the battle to a finish. The bachelors were victorious but the married men claim that they were outwitted by their opponents who brought in a professional player in Henry Beeger, However, despite this advantage the victory of the fancy-free contingent was nothing to boast of.

The bachelors showed up in splendid form and exhibited a speed that was at times thrilling

The great concourse of spectators that was present voted unanimously that Guy Hull had missed his vocation in not more closely identifying himself with the diamond. He might have become a professional. The way he swatted highballs any where between heaven and home was remarkable. And the way he got bases on fouls, steals and slides was the joy of the day.

Dan Stafford, Joe Winter and Jack Shields showed that they had much of the old sport left in them. The battery, Bill Curran pitching, and Judge Lampkin's catching, although a little worse for wear, was a credit to the married fraternity. Harold Heiner had some difficulty in making the turns at the bases, which might have been obviated had he taken a little steam roller treatment before the game. His sliding to bases was about as graceful as Guy Hull's.

Of the bachelors, Tom Flynn cleaved some awful openings in the air. Bill Barg showed lots of speed. He made a safe first base hit but got off the straight and narrow way between second and third. The battery, Charles Curran and Henry Beeger showed the advantage of team work, much to the disadvantage of the opposing team, since the latter got to wearing long trowsers and shaving the tops of their heads. Chamberlain found no difficulty in finding Beeger's curves and helped to win the game for the single-steppers.

Floyd Smith umpired the game. and showed remarkable diplomacy at the same time meriting the sympathy of the spectators. The score was 8 to 5 in favor of the bachelors. To Bill Barg is due the credit for organizing and managing the event.

A pleasant sequel to the game was the banquet at Bernasque's Monday evening at which the bachelors were the guests of their defeated rivals. Covers were laid for forty-five. The rivalry that inevitably follows such an event was obliterated in the good hearted raillery and merry bantering of those responding to the toastmaster.

Arrested and handcuffed together by Deputy Sheriff Shields, Henry Beeger and Peter Christenson rendered their pathetic little ballad entitled "Hans is Pickled Again", amid great applause.

Among those who responded to the toastmaster, Assistant District Attorney Floyd Smith, were Judge Lampkin, District Attorney Swart, Wm. Barg, Tom Flynn, County Recorder Heiner, County Treasurer P. P. Chamberlain, Dr. Taggart, County Clerk Nash, and his deputy A. L. Lowe, Alphonse Liguori, Deputy Sheriff Shields, Carl Muller, County Surveyor Neuman and J. F. Johnston.

The banquet board unanimously voted to divide the surplus gate receipts of the game equally between the Hawes memorial fund and the Catholic fair.

At ten o'clock the gathering repaired in a body to the dance given at the Alhambra in honor of the teachers of the county.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

BOOST AND YOU CREATE CONFIDENCE.
KNOCK AND YOU INVITE DISASTER.
GET CONFIDENT WITH THE DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION.

Henry Ward Brown should receiv the vote of every citizen of San Mateo county who believes the time has come when the legislature of this state should be freed from the baneful influence of boss rule.

"Though shalt not steal" is certainly a good motto—but how about drawing salary as governor while someone else is doing the work. Has anyone heard of the great and good Hiram returning his unearned warrant.

In Nebraska Roosevelt defended his action in leaving the Republican party. It is needless to enlarge on his bolt. He is out and theparty is proceeding with its business in the ordnary self respecting way. The Colonel's mistake is in supposing that he killed the party in deserting it.

Rev. Anna Howard Shaw, of Detroit, national president of the Equal Suffrage society, has repudiated Roosevelt and the suffrage plank of the Bull Moose party. In a public statement she says: "I have no use for Roosevelt. The colonel discovered that he favored woman suffrage only when he thought he saw that through such a profession he might gain the electoral vote of a single state, which has a representation of thirty-seven in the electoral college. He is seeking the aid of women, not to aid the women, All he is looking for is votes for himself."

THEFT AND TREASON COMBINED.

The Republican party, known to the nation and to history for more than half a century, placed its platform and its ticket before the people in accordance with the usage of years. Why should those who renounce allegiance to that party and repudiate its platform and ticket insist in masquerading under its banner while treacherously fighting it? Why, when they have the power, should they insist upon using its name, its organization and prestige in order to defeat it. To an honest mind this is not only theft, but theft and treason combined.

Let the Roosevelt party stand out in the open, under its own name, its own organization and with its own ticket, and take its chances with the Republicans, the Democrats, the Socialists and the others. Let it go in under its own banner, its own uniform and under its own leaders.

Here in California, tens of thousands of us who are regular Republicans helped to put the present state administration in power. Did we do that in order that they might be able to break up the party we believe in and adhere to? Did we break down the old machine simply to install in its place another even more domineering and high-handed? Did we intend to put in power men who, while sanctimoniously proclaim "Though shalt not steal," should rob us of our political birthright.

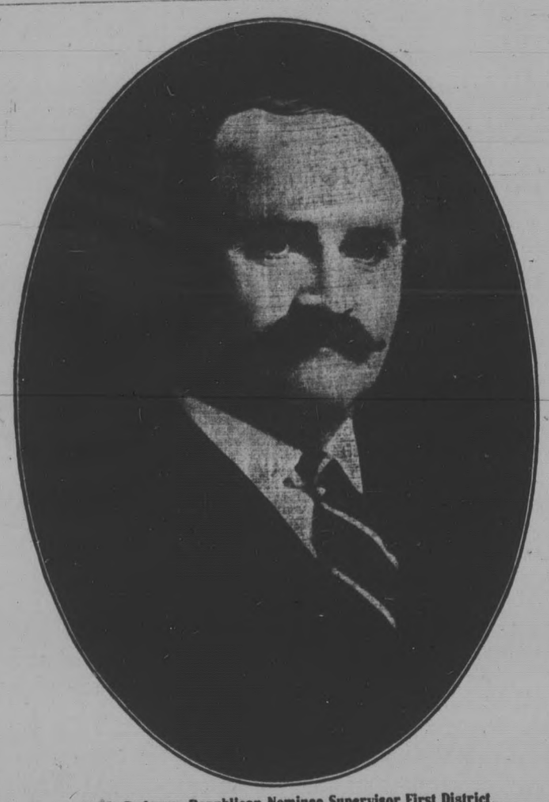
In common honesty and honor, here in California, regular Republicans who adhere to the National party are entitled to the opportunity of voting for Taft electors in the regular way. To deny them this opportunity is to defraud them.

DEMAND PRACTICAL RESULTS.

It is of the utmost importance to the residents of the Third district that during the coming four years they should be represented in the Board of Supervisors by a man imbued with the principles of modern progress, a man who believes the district should keep pace with the spirit of improvement. It is essential, for instance, that the highways of the district should be brought as nearly as possible to a state of perfection, that the improvements made be of a practicable and enduring character. While they will brook no extravagance, what they require is the intelligent expenditure of their money so as to obtain permanent results, rather than a parsimonious economy that boasts of the mere saving of a few dollars.

By the election of John McBain this desirable result can unquestionably be secured. From a lifetime spent in this district he is thoroughly informed of its needs, while during a long term of past experience as a member of the Board of Supervisors he has acquired a thorough knowledge of the work required. With the advantage of years of experience in practical mechanics and the handling of large enterprises, he is unusually well equipped to secure the taxpayers of his district and of the county not only an honest expenditure of their funds, but practical and lasting results for the money expended.

Judge Frank Kerrigan, one of the members of the appellate court for this district, was in town last Saturday calling on friends. Mr. Kerrigan spent his boyhood in Redwood City and has a longing for the scenes of his youth. The judge's term of office expires in two years and he expects to be a candidate for reelection. He is an able, honest and just judge who has the confidence of the people. There is no doubt that he will be continued in his present position.



H. C. Rodgers, Republican Nominee Supervisor First District

OPENS WAY FOR COMBINES.

There are some objectionable features in the proposed constitutional amendment whereby San Francisco and Los Angeles hope to be enabled to annex contiguous territory that should appeal especially to the voters of the interior of the state. In particular, these two cities, if allowed to gobble up the large and thriving municipalities in the neighborhood, as they wish to do, would almost control by themselves the political situation. They would have 38 out of 80 members in the assembly, and they would have 19 out of 40 members of the senate. It would be an easy matter for them to "swap" for a couple of extra votes, and thus dominate the situation. The effect on the interior may be appreciated. We would be at the mercy of the two big cities of the state, and would have to go down on our knees for whatever we might want from the state government.

Furthermore, the dominant element, if such a situation should come to pass, would consist of city politicians, and experience has taught us that such are lower in their standards than those of smaller communities where candidates are better known to the voters, and must stand a closer scrutiny. The experience of Greater New York should be a lesson to us. If we do not want similar conditions to come about here, a state ruled by such an organization as Tammany, it behooves us to dfeeat the proposed constitutional amendment. It is the sixth on the list as the ballot will be printed.

ENDORSED BY COLLEAGUE.

The many friends of Congressman E. A. Hayes are pleased to learn of the continued growing support being given him as a candidate to represent the new Eighth Congressional District. Mr. Hayes is visiting all sections of the distrct and has been greeted with an enthusiastic reception wherever he has appeared. It is his purpose to come in personal contact with representatives of every county in the district in an effort to learn their needs in the matter of national legislation. He is concerned in the welfare and advancement of the entire district as well as the whole state and his record in Congress gives the assurance that his new constituents will have a faithful representative when he returns to the national capital as their public servant.

Former Congressman E. H. Henshaw of Nebraska who began his Congressional career contemporaneous with Congressman Hayes made the following statement concerning Mr. Hayes during his recent visit to California.

"Congressman Hayes has always proved an exceedingly strong man and effective worker in Congress and I am more than pleased to learn that his faithful service for California has brought to his support in the new Eighth Congressional District, the large following it has merited."

"Mr. Hayes has always stood firm on every measure favored by the insurgents and he is regarded as one of the foremost Progressives at the national capitol He was one of the original insurgent members of the house and it was he who was sent as the messenger by the insurgents to President Taft to convey the insurgents' wish for a change in the despotic rules of the House. The activity he manifested in the insurgents' cause naturally incurred the enmity of Speaker Cannon as well as the rest of us, although he maintained the friendship of President Taft."

"Congressman Hayes has always been a staunch friend of California and did hard and effective work in getting the Panama exposition for San Francisco. I worked with him myself and he was particularly available for the insurgent forces in that fight. He is a tireless worker and assisted greatly in encouraging protection for the fruit industries, which are important in this state.

Certainly no more fitting emblem could be suggested for the Democratic party than the mule—an animal that kicks things backward every time it gets a chance.

A MAN OF THE PEOPLE.

While as a rule we are not inclined to look with favor upon any appeal to classes, it must be admitted that there is a strong element of justice in the claim to the support of organized labor put forth by the friends of H. C. Rodgers in behalf of his campaign for supervisor for the first district of this county. From the days of his earliest manhood Mr. Rodgers has been a practical mechanic, earning his living as a tradesman, and during all of that time he has been identified actively with the union of his trade. Having devoted many years of his life to the advancement of the claim for which his fellow workmen are contending, it is perhaps but fair that some return be asked in his behalf.

In the present instance, certainly, no harmful results can come from this appeal on behalf of Mr. Rodgers, for unquestionably he is well qualified to represent the people of the First district in the Board of Supervisors. Both as a mechanic and as a business man, Mr. Rodgers has demonstrated his ability to manage successfully private affairs, exhibiting a practical knowledge of the world. He is familiar with every inch of the territory he seeks to represnt and knows fully its needs.

Of course Francis J. Heney won't vote for Taft. So far as the record discloses, he has never voted for a Republican president in his life.

Some Bull Moose Lore

It hasn't the slightest bearing on the campaign and will probably not influence a single vote. But it is at least collaterally relevant to find out what Colonel Roosevelt really thinks of the bull moose in real life. Nor does it discount the significance of the revelation to find that the data has been unearthed by Rev. J. W. Long, who may be recalled as the first charter member of Roosevelt's original nature fakers' club which preceded the Ananias organization. Parson Long has been reading some of the Roosevelt writings penned long before the colonel emerged from the wilderness to take his place in the arena of strife. In a volume captioned "The Wilderness Hunter" the patient found the following concerning the bull moose, though the reader is cautioned against yielding to the first impulse and regarding the description as autobiographical:

"The Bull Moose lives on the public domain and is a very wasteful feeder. He is of a wandering and flighty disposition. His flesh, moreover, is coarse and stringy; his hide is thick and of very poor quality.

"He frequently shows a clumsy slowness of apprehension which amounts to downright stupidity.

"Another noticeable characteristic of the Bull Moose is his inordinate and unchangeable selfishness. Whether roaming in the woods in solitude, or tearing up the earth, or coming headlong to the call, he is thinking first, last and all the time of the safety of his own skin and fullness of his own stomach.

"Further indications of the bull's essential selfishness are found in his frequent abuse and browbeating of all other moose that are smaller than himself. He cannot tolerate a rival, but flies into a jealous rage at the first suggestion that there is any other Bull Moose in the universe."

Comment may not be superfluous; but it could hardly be more enlightening than a comparison of the writer and his writings. No wonder that when the colonel was asked how he felt, one day in the thickest of the progressive fight, he replied that he felt "like a bull moose." Little wonder that the bull moose is the emblem of the party that is composed of one man who is constitutionally a bull moose among his fellow men.—Kansas City Journal.

COUNTY TEACHERS HOLD CONVENTION

Aunual Institute of San Mateo County Instructors is Held at Local High School.

The teachers' institute of San Mateo county was called to order in the Assembly hall of the Sequoia Union High School, on last Monday at 9:30 a. m. All the teachers of the grammar and high schools were present. Altogether they made a fine gathering, representing to good advantage considerable intelligence and not a little beauty. Men among the number were very scarce, but there are still a few, who try to make the annual gatherings as enjoyable as possible.

The institute was called to order by County Superintendent Roy W. Cloud who extended a hearty welcome to all the teachers. All that he had to say was well received. He particularly mentioned that all the teachers would be required to be present at all sessions and to be on time.

The first morning the course of study was discussed in detail, the board of education having expressed a desire to find what changes, if any, the teachers might wish.

It was moved and carried to omit the teaching of square root and its applications and to substitute some other poem for the "Present Crises" in the eighth grade. There was a unanimous demand for each of the above changes.

It was moved and carried that thirty-three and one-third per cent of the credits necessary for graduation be left to the eighthgrade teachers and the remainder to the Board of Education, as usual.

The institute continued for three days, during which the official program was rendered, without change.

The reception and dance at the Alhambra Monday evening was a decidedly pleasant affair. Every teacher present heartily enjoyed it and each one is particularly thankful to the young men whose presence in such large numbers did much to make the evening so enjoyable. The committee in charge, Miss K. Wolfenden, Miss Julia Glassford and B. E. Myers left nothing undone and deserve the sincere thanks of all, for dainty decorations, good music, and attention to the securing of partners.

By a vote of 63 to 54 it was decided to go to Halfmoon Bay for,the next institute, provided accommodations for the teachers may be secured there.

The proceedings of the institute were kept by Miss Edith L. Kelly, assisted by Miss Frances Gillespie. The vice-presidents were W. L. Glascock and Miss Elsie Northrup.

All the lectures of the institute were particularly good, likewise the singing. Its success is due to the forthought and consideration of Superintendent Roy W. Cloud.

BRILLIANT FEATURES ARE ON BAZAAR PROGRAMME

The festival and bazar under the auspices of the ladies of Mt. Carmel church opened Thursday evening in Germania hall and will continue till Monday evening, when the drawings for the various prizes will be held. A very large audience was present at the opening and a patriotic program was presented by the convent children. Judge Fitzpatrick made a few appropriate remarks encouraging the ladies and their friends to take an interest in the festival. Miss Camilla Stafford and Miss Josie Genochio rendered a beautiful piano duet. The convent children, dressed in neat uniforms, rendered a convent recitation and chorus entitled "Our Standard" in a very attractive manner, and also "Voices from the Forest," in sweet harmony. The various tables are all beautifully decorated and well supplied with choice articles. On Friday evening also an attractive program was well presented.

This evening a very humorous selection of songs will be sung by Mr. Heaney, and there will be other interesting numbers, as follows:

1. Piano Duet.....
   Misses Agnes and Martha Kerr
2. Song.....Frank McAuliffe
3. Piano Solo.....Miss Irene Dickey
4. Song.....Mr. Heaney
5. Piano Solo.....Miss Agnes Kerr

Some Peculiar Methods.

Redwood City, October 2, 1912

Editor Times-Gazette: Dear Sir—I see by your report of the procedings of the Board of Supervisors held on the 25th ultimo, that Supervisor McEvoy reported that a bridge crossing the Alembique creek near Woodside was in a dangerous condition but he was unable to repair it as the bridge is on private property. Where is the bridge that is on private property? Is it in some enclosure? No, it has been used as a public highway for forty years.

By reference to the reconstructed road laws, by act of February 28th, 1863, in accordance with article 4 of the constitution it will appear that all roads, streets, alleys, lanes, courts, places, trails, and bridges; when dedicated or abandoned to public use are highways of travel. He does not say that someone forbad him repairing the bridge, but leaves us to infer that he, out of the depths of his own mental aberrations decided to add another act of injury to injury, to further advertise his own advocacy of spirit. He may have another opportunity of exhibiting his peculiar method of husbanding the people's money by defending a suit for damages resulting from the neglected bridge.

Yours, WILLIAM LASWELL.

Congregational Church Services.

MENLO PARK SCHOOL PREY OF FIRE FIEND

Flames Reduce to Ashes One of County's Handsome Public Educational Buildings.

The grammar school, with all its hallowed associations and memories of by-gone days, was burned last Tuesday afternoon after a heroic effort on the part of the fire companies of this place, Palo Alto and Redwood City to save it. The trustees had declared a vacation last week for the purpose of permitting the building to be painted and the workmen were employed on the building Tuesday. It is supposed the fire started by the painters in burning off the old paint on the belfry. When the blaze was noticed the alarm was turned in but not before the flames had made good headway. The Menlo Park fire department responded promptly and a good stream of water was turned on the burning building but it had little effect. The companies of Palo Alto and Redwood City were soon on the scene and through their efforts and the efforts of the local company all the surrounding buildings were saved, though at times it looked as if they would also go up in smoke. A lengthy reel of hose was sent by James L. Flood and a number of firemen stationed themselves at the rear of the Menlo Park Hotel and through their good work that structure as well as the cottages were saved. At one time the whole town was threatened but the active work of the firemen in putting out incipient fires promptly, controlled the situation and saved the village. The thanks of the people of Menlo Park are due the Palo Alto and Redwood City fire-departments, the local department and James L. Flood for the use of his hose and his prompt response in sending it and to Mrs James T. O'Keefe for her quick assistance in notifying the fire departments.

There is no one to blame for the conflagration, it was one of those catastrophies that occasionally visit a locality. The building was one of the first modern school houses erected in this county and was completed in 1892 at a cost of $20,000, including the costly fixtures. It was erected by John MacBain, the well-known contractor, who was given the contract by Thomas McIntyre, B. Blanchard and P. Lenehan, who were then the trustees for the district. Many of those who attended the school twenty years ago are now holding prominent positions in professional and business circles throughout the state, and the news of the burning of the school will be a source of sadness to them. The structure was insured in the Firemans Fund, German American, Hartford and Aetna Insurance companies for a total of $11,000, this amount it is thought will build a modern building. The present board of trustees are James G. Mason, M. Polson and A. Gale. School will be resumed on Monday, October 14. The trustees have been offered many buildings to be equipped for school purposes but have not as yet decided which one to accept, but will shortly do so. The board will lose no time in preparing plans for the new structure which is to be erected on the site of the old building.

The trustees have announced that all children having had their books burned will be furnished with a full state series without cost.

Will be Popular Exhibit.

The flower and poultry show of the Redwood City Woman's Club takes place at the gymnasium building in this city on October 17, 18 and 19. The ladies are busily arranging for the occasion and the event promises to be a great success. Notices have been sent out this week to growers of flowers and chicken fanciers and all have signified their intention of making exhibits. The display will no doubt attfact visitors from all over the county.

St Peter's Church Services.

The services at St. Peter's church Sunday morning will be as follows: Holy Eucharist at 7:30; Holy Communion and sermont at 11 o'clock. In the evening there will be a vesper service and address at 7:30, when the rector will continue his series of interesting talks on the characters of the Old Testament, taking for his subject "Reheboam and Jereboam." The sunday school meets in the morning at 10 o'clock. There will be special music at the evening service.

Large delegations from San Jose, Santa Clara and Mountain View were present and were met at the depot by the reception committee, accompanied by the Redwood City band, who escorted the visitors to the hall. The local lodge now has a membership close to 300.

Fiftieth Lodge Anniversary

Bay View lodge of Odd Fellows will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary next Sunday evening. The members of the lodge and visitors and the Rebekahs are requested to meet at their hall at 7 o'clock from which place they will march to the Congregational church where appropriate services will be held.

The card party to be given Tuesday, October 8th, at 8 o'clock, at Woman's Club House, Dingee Park, is in charge of Mrs. Geo. Gunther and Mrs. A. M. Porter. Club members and their friends are invited to take part in the evening's enjoyment of cards and dancing. Admission 25 cents.

J. D. Kersey, who was a resident of this county in 1863 was in town yesterday. He inquired about old friends of long ago but soon learned that many of them had passed over the "great divide" years ago. Mr. Kersey was a clerk for Dr. Tripp in 1863 and knew all the people in the community at that time. Today the only one that remains of that glaxy of pioneers is William Laswell.

Confidence Not Shaken.

The failure of the mismanaged Palo Alto Building and Loan Association has not shaken the faith of the people in the well-managed local organization. There have been no withdrawls, and there is no probability that there will be any. The home association is differently handled than the Palo Alto concern. It is in the hands of a board of directors composed of the city's most reliable business men who are familiar with its every detail and is as solid as the strongest bank in the state. For over twenty years it has done business successfully and it will so continue.

Marshal Black Property Attached.

The law firm of Rodgers and Smith of Palo Alto yesterday filed three leins on the property of Marshall Black in this county. Those who filed on the realty were Dudfield Lumber Company for $890.40, H. Vote for $225 and R. S. Jewell for $125. The property attached was Mr. Black's equity in lots 10 and 11, Fabertract, Woodside.

Menlo Park News Notes.

This is the last day to register. See to it that you consult W. R. Daley before evening and get your name on the big book if you wish to vote at the coming election.

John MacBain has returned from Gilroy Hot Springs in the best of health and is prepared to launch his campaign for supervisor of the Third township with vigor. He has a strong following that will work for him until the day of election. His friends predict his election by a big majority.

Local nimrods have taken down their guns and are cleaning them for on onslaught on ducks and quail, the season for which opens on the fifteenth. There has been a large flight of birds from the north on the marshes and some good sport is looked forward to when the season opens.

As predicted in these columns last week the Family "Row" at the church grounds Saturday evening was a decided success.The attractive setting and the gaily dressed crowd were features and the program was all that could be expected. The attendance was much larger than last year. Fully 1000 enjoyed the performance.

Through the efforts and influence of E. J. Crane at the Democratic convention held at Sacramento recently, J. S. Tobin, the well-known attorney for the Hibernia Bank, of San Francisco was chosen an elector for this congressional district. Mr. Crane also secured the appointment of J. B. Welch of Menlo Park on the state central committee and George Meekins of Palo Alto as committeeman for that place.

Teacher's Certificates Granted.

The county board of education held an important meeting last Thursday. The board granted a number of teacher's certificates to normal graduates now teaching in the county. The board also decided to grant the request of the Burlingame school to hold semi-annual examinations for graduation. The members concluded to permit pupils who failed at the June examination to try the test at San Mateo in December.

Redwood City can boast of one of the most attractive moving picture showhouses on the peninsula. Thoroughly ventilated and comfortable seated the Bell Theater is a model of comfort, while manager Nathhorst exercises the greates of care in the selection of ubjecs shown.

AUTOLOADING SHOTGUN

For singles—trap or field—just toss in a shell, press the button and—"PULL." The side bolt makes it easy. You don't have to tug at the barrel or watch an on-and-off device. The action stays open after each single shot is fired.—It always stays open when the magazine is empty. Five shots—three to get the cripples—each under absolute control of the trigger finger. The recoil reloads for you—kicks another shell in; takes the strain off the gun—the discomfort out of the kick—all without diminishing the drive behind the shot.

Simple take-down—a few turns of the readily handled magazine screw-cap makes cleaning, carrying and interchange of barrels quick and easy.

Send for a motion picture booklet telling how the kick is used—how a friction device found only on the Remington-UMC Autoloading Shotgun takes the punishment out of heavy loads.

Write to-day.

To Please the Palate
is our aim in serving meat—to retain the fine flavor Nature bestows, not to let it go to waste, as some meatshops do. With prolonging this true tale, it may be set down for a fact that here is to be found a first-class place to purchase beef, mutton, lamb, ham, poultry and game, to give your table good credit with household and guest.
